

Kitchen Volunteer

Ananda Kalyani is looking for committed Kitchen Volunteers to cook vegan and sattvic food for our lovely community and inspiring events.

You will expand your knowledge and skills on cooking nourishing meals, belong to a spiritually and ecologically minded community, be part of daily spiritual practices such as kiirtan and meditation (optional), have access to inspiring knowledge and visions on a regenerative world, live amid astonishing nature, receive spiritual teachings, and get support from spiritual guides through your inner and outer journey.

Ananda Kalyani is a pioneering Integrated Rural Development (IRD) project dedicated to spirituality, local development, and holistic regeneration, encompassing environmental, economic, and social aspects. We aim to serve as a model and educational hub for sustainable and regenerative living in the 21st century.

Kitchen shift leader

- Is equipped with experience, knowledge, and skills on cooking;
- Is comfortable leading cooking shifts (breakfast, lunch, dinner), cooking vegan and sattvik food for a varying amount of people (ranging from 5 - 90).
- Coordinates supportive volunteers in tasks such as cutting vegetables, using stoves, ovens, and making both juices and sauces;
- Competently plans the cooking process to serve the food at the scheduled meal times;
- Knows how to estimate quantities for large groups;
- Maintains safety and hygiene standards in the kitchen;
- Coordinates the clean-up after meal times and general cleaning tasks.

Kitchen supporter

- Is eager and easily able to learn. You will be supported and guided in your learning process. Experience is great but certainly not necessary;
- Supports the shift leader in cooking vegan and sattvik food (breakfast, lunch, dinner) for a varying amount of people (ranging from 5 - 90). This includes tasks such as cutting, chopping, and making salads and juices;
- Supports the clean-up after meal times and general cleaning tasks.

As a volunteer, your food and accommodation will be provided. In exchange, you are of service for 6 hours a day 5 days a week, and contribute 10 euro a day. We ask for a contribution to sustain the financial health of this beautiful project. We are looking for people who could start as soon as possible.
